Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

The response to the outstanding Official Action in the above-referenced U.S. patent application was due on December 6, 2004, with the appropriate Petition for a 3-month Extension of Time. Applicants' attorney learned on December 7, 2004 that the deadline had been inadvertently missed due to a docketing error. Applicants' attorney began preparation of a response to the outstanding Official Action on December 7, 2004. Applicants' attorney completed the response and reviewed the response with the Assignee on December 13, 2004. The response, this Petition, and a Request for Continued Examination were filed on December 13, 2004.

Accordingly, it is respectfully submitted that the entire delay between the deadline for responding to the Official Action and the time that the petition was filed was unintentional.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that this Petition be granted.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any fees associated with the filing of this correspondence to Deposit Account No. 50-0426.

Respectfully submitted,

JENKINS, WILSON & TAYLOR, P.A.
